

For Individuals

1. Where do I think the Lord wants me to grow at this time?
2. What can I do to move it forward a little?
3. How can I grow my prayer time a bit?
4. How can I grow my relationship with the Lord?
5. Major weaknesses: how to start a path to freedom?
6. Am I teachable/correctable?
7. Do I have my priorities in order?

For Couples

1. Are we praying for each other?
2. Do we have enough social time together?
3. Which other husbands and wives are good examples?
4. Does our approach to the Lord and His service reflect the commitment of a disciple?
5. Do we have a plan for handling conflict and areas of disagreement?
6. Do we have our priorities in order?
7. Are we unified in our approach to church, family, and community?
8. Are we committed to keeping our marriage strong?

For Parents

1. Have they accepted the Lord? (This answer can orient/re-orient the plan)
2. What is our vision and hope for each child?
3. Are we praying for each child?
4. Are we praying for deliverance when needed?
5. How can we pass on the vision for community life?
6. Which family has children that are helpful to ours?
7. Which family has children that are less helpful to ours?
8. Do we pray blessings for them?
9. Are we working to keep the lines of communication open?
10. Are we welcoming to older children who may not have a relationship with the Lord?

For Grandparents

1. How can we support the discipleship of our grandchildren?
2. Do we make room for them in our lives/schedules?
3. Do we pray for them regularly?
4. Can we help pay for retreats and conferences?